

Bible Study Tips and Resource Article Submissions:

I'm passionate about Bible study and I want others to be passionate about it too! I'm looking for articles that encourage us to get in Gods word. These articles should in some way teach a Bible study skill and/or provide valuable resources & tips to help us in our studies. Your article could include topics such as:

- *How to Choose the Right Bible Study Method
- *How to Memorize Scripture
- *Creating the Perfect Bible Study Space
- *Making Time to Study the Bible When Your Life is Crazy
- *The Many Ways Bible Study Has Grown Your Faith
- *Lifechanging Bible Studies/Christian books for Women

Don't feel like you have to stay with the above topics. Be creative and share what you have personally learned about bible study!

- Before you begin, spend some time in prayer and ask God to guide your words as you write your article.
- Your article should be your own original work. Pieces that haven't been previously published online or in print are preferred, however, articles that have only been published on your own personal blog will be considered. Please do not send articles that have been previously published anywhere other than your own blog. If you're sending in something that's been previously published on your blog please make a note under your article and include the original post date and a link to post.
- Please keep your article between 500-1000 words in length. If it's over one-thousand words please try to cut it down.
- When referencing scripture, please use either the [NIV] or [ESV].
- Please check your article for grammatical errors before submitting. I reserve the right to edit articles for length, clarity, and conformance with selected style guides. If adjustments are needed, I will do my best to let you know of any necessary changes.
- Please only submit one article per submission form. If you want to send in more than one please send each one separately.

- When preparing your Author Bio, please keep it short. If you would like readers to connect with you on social media, you may include 1-2 links in your bio. Don't worry about sending a photo right now, I will get that from you at a later date.
- Be sure to submit your article by the cut-off date: August 15, 2018
- Please read over our Privacy Policy and Blog Terms of Use before submitting your devotion or article.
- Once you are ready, please use the form located on the bottom of the submission guidelines page to submit your article.

Thank you so much for sharing the gift of your writing. I look forward to reading your words. If you have any questions, please email me @ frombud2bloom@gmail.com
