Petals of Wisdom Devotion Submissions:

Right now I'm seeking devotions that fall into one of the following three categories: Faith, Prayer, and Purpose.

Faith

Possible topics: trusting God in desperate times, growing in your relationship with Jesus, ways God has used your circumstances to grow your faith, how your faith has increased through trials and tribulations, holding on to hope, characters from the bible with unshakeable faith, etc...

Prayer

Possible topics: the importance of having a prayer life, praying for yourself and others, praying for your children, praying for your husband, asking for prayer, praying the scriptures, praying together, the power of prayer, people who prayed in the Bible, etc...

Purpose

Possible topics: God created us for a purpose, how to know your purpose, discovering the talents and spiritual gifts God has given us, how God has used your gifts to help serve others (and vice versa), boldly sharing the gospel, courageously walking in your calling, using our talents and gifts to further his Kingdom, our purpose as a friend, mother, wife, etc...

Don't feel like you have to stay within the boundaries of the suggested topics. As long as it falls into one of the three categories, it's fine. Be creative and share what God puts on your heart!

- If you haven't done so already, be sure to read the Petals Of Wisdom page so you will have a better understanding of the purpose of this devotional series.
- Before you begin, spend some time in prayer and ask God to guide your words as you write your devotion.
- Please make sure your devotion goes along with the current categories before submitting your piece.

- Be sure to submit your devotion by the cut-off date: August 15, 2018
- Please only submit one devotion per submission form. If you want to send in more than one, please send each one separately.
- Your devotion should be original work and not previously published online, including on your blog.
- Please write your devotion in the preferred writing style. Devotions should encourage and inspire the reader to grow in a friendly manner. Please don't submit poems or anything that sounds poetic. Please visit the submissions guidelines page on the website to print the template for the preferred writing style.
- Please keep your devotion between 250-450 words in length. This includes the closing prayer. If it's over four-hundred and fifty words, please try to cut it down.
- When referencing scripture, please use either the [NIV] or [ESV].
- Please check your devotion for grammatical errors before submitting. I reserve the right to edit articles for length, clarity, and conformance with selected style guides. If adjustments are needed, I will do my best to let you know of any necessary changes.
- When preparing your Author Bio, please keep it short. If you would like readers to connect with you on social media, you may include 1-2 links in your bio. Don't worry about sending a photo right now; I will get that from you at a later date.
- Please read over our Privacy Policy and Blog Terms of Use before submitting your devotion or article.
- Once you are ready, please use the form located on the bottom of the submission guidelines page to submit your devotion.

Thank you so much for sharing the gift of your writing. I look forward to reading your words. If you have any questions, please email me @ frombud2bloom@gmail.com
