

A Prayer For When They Don't Believe

Heavenly Father, I praise you for your kindness, mercy, and forgiveness. You are a good God, full of love and grace.

Lord, your word tells me not to be afraid or discouraged because you are always with me. Please help me remember that I needn't worry because you are by my side; I am not alone. (Psalm 34:18) God, help me keep my eyes and my thoughts on you when I'm experiencing doubt. You are my strength and strong tower; please help me keep going when I'm tempted to give up or lose hope. (Proverbs 18:10) Lord, protect my mind from the lies of the enemy and help me stand firm on truth and power in the scriptures. (Eph. 6:11, 1 Cor. 15:58) And although I don't understand _____ continued unbelief, I know that you are in control, and I choose to put my trust in you. (Proverbs 3:5-6)

Lord, I ask that you give me the wisdom not only to know what to say to _____, but the discernment to know when to speak and when to hold my tongue. (James 1:5) God, help me to be patient and understanding with _____ when we do discuss the gospel. (Eph. 4:2) Help my words to be gentle and not argumentative. (Proverbs 15:1;16:24) May my actions and words honor you, God, and speak truth in _____ life.

Lord, I pray for_____. It's my heart's desire that they will come to know Jesus as Lord and savior. (Rom. 10:1) God, I ask that you protect them from anything, whether people, things, or beliefs, that could push them further from you. I ask that you place others besides myself in their lives to help point them to you, Lord. God, every word in the bible is breathed out by you and full of truth. (Prov. 30:5, John 1:14, 2 Tim. 3:16) If there is anything false about you that _____ has come to believe, I pray it will be brought to light by the truth in your words.

Lord, your word tells us to love others. (John 13:34-35) I ask that you help me love _____ with a love that reflects the love of Christ. Please give me eyes to see them as you see them and help me to extend _____ grace in the same way you have extended me grace. (Eph. 4:32) Lord, your word says we are to be ambassadors for Christ. (2 Corinth. 5:20) I pray that you will help me live my life in a way that points _____ to Jesus.

Lord, you are a wise God who gives wisdom to those who seek it; I thank you I can come to you for guidance. God, your word tells us that you hold us up with your hand when we are dismayed. (Isaiah 41:10) Thank you for always being with me and protecting me. Lord, I know that I won't do this perfectly, so I ask in advance that you forgive me when I make mistakes. I thank you for your grace and forgiveness. In Jesus' name, Amen!

